Mass Intentions

Mass intentions can be offered for a friend or family member who is living or deceased. Some suggested Masses may be for a couple's anniversary, a birthday or if someone is struggling with an illness or, as is most common, for the repose of the soul of someone who has died. The suggested offering for Masses to be offered is $10. Mass intention envelopes are located in the pamphlet rack in the front of church or outside the office door in the east vestibule.

One must never forget the infinite graces that flow from the Sacrifice of the Mass which benefit ones soul.

News From the Parish Office:

Greetings from Fr. Jegan!

Dear Brothers and sisters in Christ,
Peace of Christ!

God reveals his plans in a right time for us to have a great experience in our lives. To be a good Catholic Christian is not easy in today's world, because it brings many challenges and stressful moments. We keep on worrying about our problems and conflicts rather than thanking for all the blessings. God let the weed 'for a while', though he cares and nurtures the wheat to grow and bring an abundant harvest at the end, so it requires a great level of patience and hard work on the right time to clear the weeds. We learn from Jesus' parable that we act with prudence and patience in spiritual life and community life, so that our hard work may not go in vain.

Jesus calls us to be the prudent and hardworking stewards to work for His kingdom. When we all work together by putting aside our own different opinions, differences 'for a while' and come together as a family that looks ahead only for a good and abundant harvest. Let us thank God for all the blessings that He has done to our St. Martin's family and made us to grow in many ways. I pray and hope that we will receive more blessings by getting involved more in all our Parish activities and see the beauty of faith-filled life.

We are blessed to have a new Shepherd for our Archdiocese of Indianapolis. I request you all to pray for our newly elected Archbishop Charles C. Thompson. Due to the large number of people that need to be accommodated, the Installation Mass of Archbishop Charles C. Thompson at 2 pm on July 28 is by invitation only, however, the Mass will be live-streamed on the Archdiocesan website, www.archindy.org.

To be the witness for His love,
Fr. Jegan Peter.

Welcome Father T. Velangini!

Father T. Velangini will speak at all the Masses on July 29-30

According to a UNICEF report 50 million female babies were killed in India in the last 10 years by way of systematic and selective gender elimination. Today there are only 914 females for every 1000 males in India. Since the vast majority of Indians are Hindus they believe that only a boy will save them from hell. There is also the common notion that the boy is the bread-winner. In addition to this, if a girl has to be married they have to give huge dowry. Every hour there is a dowry death in India.

In order to address these issues, Divyavani Social Communications is training Catholic graduates as journalists for mainstream media. These journalists formed with moral conscience in turn bring about education and awareness. We plan on training 160 in batches of 40 this year. The training cost per student is $200.

You can help us change the situation for female babies in India by sponsoring half hour television program. We want to produce programs for public awareness and education on these social evils and unhealthy cultural practices. Each half hour TV episode costs $200.

New Ministry Opportunity

Sacristans are needed: We are looking for volunteers to care for the sacristy and its contents, to prepare for the celebration of the Mass and various other duties related to preparation and clean up following Mass. For detailed information please contact Fr. Jegan, Lynne or Deacon Tim training will be provided.

Register now for Religious Education classes

Registration for 2017-18 Religious Education classes has begun! Students in grades K-8th grade will begin classes on Sunday, August 13th. For planning purposes please return your completed forms as soon as possible.

Pope invites people to share views on young people, the faith and vocational discernment

Consider it a heartfelt invitation from Pope Francis.

The pope has extended the invitation as the Church prepares for a meeting of the Synod of Bishops on young people, the faith and vocational discernment in October 2018.

As part of that invitation, young people—and actually all Catholics and non-Catholics—are asked to share their thoughts on a survey that is available in the archdiocese through the website www.archindy.org/listens

The opportunity for people to share their responses to the survey's questions about "young people, the faith and vocational discernment" will be available until July 31

Instalation Mass

Archbishop-designate Charles C. Thompson of Evansville will be installed on July 28, 2017. Due to the large number of people that need to be accommodated, the Installation Mass of Archbishop Charles C. Thompson on July 28, is by invitation only, however, the Mass will be live-streamed on the Archdiocese website. <http://www.archindy.org/>
