News From the Parish Office:

Office of the President
3211 FOURTH STREET NE
WASHINGTON DC 20017-1194
His Eminence Cardinal Daniel N. DiNardo
Archbishop of Galveston-Houston President

September 14, 2017

Your Eminence/Excellency:

In the past few days Hurricane Irma devastated significant parts of the Caribbean and the southeastern United States. While emergency outreach was immediate, we know that the road to recovery and the rebuilding of communities will be long and additional support will be needed.

I write to you today and ask that you take up an emergency collection for those impacted by Hurricane Irma. These funds will be used in the affected areas to support humanitarian aid, assistance with long-term efforts to restore communities after widespread destruction, and for the pastoral and reconstruction needs of the Church in US and the Caribbean.

I am aware that this call comes on the heels of the emergency collection for Hurricane Harvey. That storm, which hit Texas and Louisiana and held on for days before moving inland, caused catastrophic damage and compelled us to respond. Likewise, Hurricane Irma has been devastating, and our brothers and sisters in the Caribbean, especially the Diocese of St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands, and the southern US need our help.

The Church is a channel for grace and solidarity in the wake of natural disasters as it offers solace and support in their aftermath. However, as is so often the case, the Church itself in these regions is both a long-standing provider of aid and now is in need of tremendous assistance itself. So many of the Church's structures have been damaged and their resources depleted which makes it even more challenging to provide assistance and pastoral outreach to those in need.

Please plan for the Hurricane Irma collection the weekend of September 23-24 or as soon as possible thereafter.

With gratitude for your understanding and support, I remain
Fraternally yours in our Lord,

Daniel Cardinal DiNardo Archbishop of Galveston-Houston
President, United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

Second Collection this weekend for hurricane relief

As announced at last weekend's Masses, St. Martin's will have a second collection this weekend. Please continue to pray for those affected and for those who are helping in the recovery efforts.

Parish Work Day

Please plan on joining us on Saturday October 7th at 8:00 am for a parish work day. No special skills are required! We have ongoing painting and cleaning projects to complete. Parish work days are a great opportunity to help out with the upkeep and beauty of our parish by simply volunteering a few hours of your time.

Any questions please contact Mark Elsner mark.elsner@yahoo.com

High School Night

This Sunday Sept. 24th from 5:00pm until 7:00pm the evening will include supper, discussion on topics you want to discuss at future meetings and, weather permitting, an outdoor game or activity. Game indoors as a back-up!

Please Remember In Your Prayers:

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

True love does not measure itself against the love of others. If I am truly in love with God there is no need to compare myself with others or succumb to jealousy if others appear closer than I or because I have loved longer. Authentic love does not consider benefits or privileges. It simply desires to be in the presence of the One who is loved. God invites all of his children into a relationship with him. It does not matter when along our life's journey we accept that invitation. It is only important that we do. In our Gospel today, the owner of the vineyard promised the usual daily wage to everyone, regardless of what time each started working. God promises love and eternal life to all who enter into relationship with him. It does not matter when. This is God's pure merciful gift. It is God's to give as God desires.

WHAT IS CURSILLO?

Cursillo is a Catholic Christian movement recognized by the Roman Catholic Church. It is not a traditional retreat and is best described as an experience discovering a better life and what is fundamental in Christianity. During the three day weekend, participants receive a deep and profound experience of Christian life.

The weekend helps us experience our Catholic faith more fully. We become motivated to engage in a spiritual life filled with joy, laughter and enthusiasm; and to discover an enhanced relationship with God. The point of the Cursillo movement is ordinary people steadily growing in the love and service of God and his people for the rest of our lives.

December 7 & 8	2:30-9:00 pm
Saturday December 9	10:00-4:30 pm

Don't miss out on this opportunity to be a part of history. Put names with faces and connect with other families

All Souls Day pilgrimage November 2nd

An archdiocesan All Souls Day pilgrimage to the graves of archdiocesan priests will give pilgrims an opportunity to pray for the souls of those priests who have served the faithful of the archdiocese in previous years, and to learn about the history of the Church in central and southern Indiana.

Julie Motyka, archdiocesan archivist, and Father Eric Augenstein, archdiocesan vocations director, will lead the one-day pilgrimage on Nov. 2.

The pilgrimage will feature a visit to St. Joseph University Parish in Terre Haute, which is the burial place of Father Simon Lalumière, the first resident priest in the state of Indiana. From St. Joseph, the group will proceed to Saint Mary-of-the-Woods, with a visit to the priests' circle in the cemetery and also to the shrine and burial site of St. Mother Theodore Guérin. The trip will conclude with a visit to Calvary Cemetery in Indianapolis to pray at the graves of priests buried there, especially several former bishops and archbishops. Motyka said the pilgrimage will help individuals feel a stronger connection to the Catholics of the local Church's past, and to grow in their lives of faith.

Pilgrims will board the bus at the Archbishop Edward T. O'Meara Catholic Center, 1400 N. Meridian St., in Indianapolis, at 7:45 a.m. and will return at approximately 5:30 p.m.

For more information, contact Carolyn Noone at 317-236-1428 or 800-382-9836, ext. 1428, or e-mail cnoone@archindy.org. The pilgrimage fee is $69 per person, which includes deluxe motor coach transportation, bag breakfast, and lunch. The trip will be filled on a first-come basis. To register online, log on to www.archindy.org/pilgrimage.
