Way to go St. Martin's! We have reached our goal!

Never underestimate the difference YOU can make in someone's life. By giving to the UCA, you are doing more than providing a hot meal, counseling services, access to housing or support to our retired priests. You are making an impact and restoring hope.

News From the Parish Office:

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
Peace of Christ!

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday. Since the year 2001, the second Sunday of Easter has been consecrated by the Church to celebrate the Feast of the Divine Mercy was designated by our favorite saint Pope John Paul II. It is a great devotion started by a Polish nun named St. Faustina Kowalska to whom Jesus revealed the message of His divine and merciful love.

This Sunday is specifically dedicated to praise the Love of God, a Love full of compassion for all those who have sinned, and therefore for all of us.

We plan and prepare many things for our life and our family and in the end, we can say and do so many things, but after everything has been said and done, we humbly go to the Lord, and say, "Jesus I trust in you." May we learn early enough that our achievements and plans come to nothing without God's grace and approval. It is consoling too that our sins and mistakes are small compared to His unconditional mercy and love. Yes, the sooner we realize, and the sooner we live in God's mercy, the better for all of us. God is a God of mercy who redeemed us by His passion, death and resurrection. Hence, no matter how grave and numerous our sins may be, if we decide to return to Him in humble repentance, He will not hesitate to pardon us. Of course, this infinite mercy should not be a license for us to abuse. "God is good and merciful," one may say, "so I can go on doing what I want." Let us be sure that God looks into the human heart and knows if we are sincere or not. May Divine Mercy of Our Lord Jesus save us all!

To be the witness for His love,

Fr. Jegar

Ministry Scheduling

We will soon be working on Ministry Schedules for May-July, if you have vacation plans or won't be available on a certain date, please let secretary Lynne know 342-6379 or secretarysm@att.net

Parish Registration

If you are attending Mass regularly at St. Martin's and have not registered, you may pick up a registration form in the pamphlet racks at church. We receive many requests from parishioners to qualify for school eligibility, weddings or to be Godparents and sponsors for the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation. The only way we can provide these services is if you are registered, attend Mass and participate in Parish activities.

Welcome Back!

Please Remember In Your Prayers:

First Holy Communion Candidates

Please keep in prayer our First Holy Communion Candidates and their families. We currently have 14 students, who will be receiving their First Holy Communion on Sunday, April 15th at 12:30pm.

Lena Craney, Madeline Emmons, Abigail Greene, Luke Klippel, Gabriel Klopfenstein, Aubrey Lawson, Ryanne & Hope Myers, Wyatt Niese, Grace Runnybohm, Joseph Ruplinger, Oliver Sheridan, Xavier Siebert, Izzie Wolfe

May they experience in our parish the support they need for their growing faith to flourish.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations is fast approaching

As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives! He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood, and others to religious life or to live as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations-and teaching young people how to discern God's call-is a serious duty, but also a joyful one.

Pope Francis has asked the entire Church to earnestly pray for vocations on April 22, 2018

Storm the Castle Brute Nights

High school guys are invited to join the Bishop Brute College Seminary Community. On Wednesday April 18, 2018, you can come and see what life in seminary is like. To register, contact Andy Miller at 317-236-1490 or amiller@archindy.org

Catholic Charities Bloomington

In Bloomington, Catholic Charities' mission is the provision of mental health care to all people, regardless of their ability to pay.

They provide: Individual, family and group counseling in Spanish and English, School counseling, Teacher training and consultation services, Psychological and psycho-educational evaluations for adults and children.

Catholic Charities Bloomington offers its services on a sliding-fee scale, if needed, and they also take Medicaid—one of the very few mental health organizations in Bloomington that does so.

Thank you and God bless you for your support of Catholic Charities Bloomington through the United Catholic Appeal or direct donations to Catholic Charities. Your generosity provides essential medical care to your neighbors and friends.
